Footnotes

CAVORTING was brushed after the start, sat reserved towards the back of the pack during the opening half, set foot into the turn from the three path, remained on hold keeping an eye on the four front runners pressing each other for command, picked up interest as three-quarters was being completed, swung five wide into the stretch and kicked into her best stride, took charge during the ensuing furlong, drifted out slighter after some left side pressure with approximately a sixteenth remaining, finished comfortably in the clear, kept to the task at hand. FOREVER UNBRIDLED got guided onto the rail midway down the backstretch, narrowed the gap from the half mile pole to midpoint on the turn, lightly hand urged while at the task, was switched over to a rating hold when briefly caught behind DESERT VALLEY, that one being in her early stages of backing away as the field approached the five-sixteenths pole, managed to squeeze itself into the two path during the next sixteenth, remained momentarily on hold after entering the stretch then proceeded to get angled out five to six wide for better racing room, finished willingly, although no match for the top one. CARRUMBA settled into the two path after the start, idled behind a wall comprised of four opponents during the run around the bend, spun from between foes into the stretch, altered course onto the inside route, flattened out. CURALINA in a bit after losing her footing at the break, was corrected before significant contact was made with any other, set foot from the three path onto the turn, disputed the pace from between rivals making her way to the quarter pole, got set down for the drive home, had no late response. SHEER DRAMA lunged as the field was sent off and running, sat forwardly placed in the four path, making her presence felt during the journey on the bend, had no rally once the stretch run began. STOPCHARGINGMARIA remained in the two path after the start, was asked for some run coming to the conclusion of the backstretch, left it and forced the issue from between rivals all the way to the five-sixteenths pole, then gave way. DESERT VALLEY was lightly bumped, getting knocked slightly sideways in the shadow of the starting gate, responded to some mild urging and grabbed the advantage, cut over to the rail, showed the way chased by a theesome of foes to the outside during the setting of the third split, was reeled in soon after going six furlongs and retreated.
