Footnotes

SUPER ALLISON shied in sharply right after the start, eluding SARATIAGO, herself shifting in and away from UNREPENTED, requiring the pilot to steady the mount, made up the resulting three length deficit in a jiffy, was dragged out into path three, stayed put there before gliding one closer to the rail in the time for the run around the bend, was rated in a professional manner, within striking distance of a three-way pace contest, was given her cue angling five wide, the widest of all, into the stretch, caught up to the ones to catch, appeared intent on lugging in at the three-sixteenths marker, rider countering this desire with a strong grip on the right reins, had that desire tempered down and went after the leader in earnest, put that one in the final stages after an invigorating duel. RIOT WORTHY lost her footing springing from the gate, grabbed the advantage, showed the way from the inside on the turn, with a pair of opponents parked out in paths two and three respectively applying pressure, was put to a drive as the third fraction was being recorded and drifted out into the two path, mustered up good determination to emerge at the eighth pole still in front, got hooked up in a one on one fight with the winner, dug in willingly but got caught late. UNREPENTED broke slightly to the inside, enough so as to induce two others to move inward right afterwards themselves, settled into the three path, vied for the lead as the widest of a trio from the top of the bend to upper stretch, weakened in the final furlong into the show slot. EMPRESS JINGU in the two path, pressed the issue from between rivals from the half mile pole to the three-sixteenths marker and tired. LOVE YOU BABE loped along from off the inside down the backstretch, travelled three wide on the turn and never got involved. SARATIAGO shied in after the start, was sent onto the inside route, rode the rail for nearly three-quarters, appeared to have little left when put three wide at the top of the lane. ROMAN REIGN in the two path and positioned in the middle of two others, was through after going six furlongs.
