Footnotes

MRS MCDUGAL travelled four wide, the widest of all, on each turn, got turned loose enteing the stretch, kicked into her best stride deep into the furlong grounds, wore down a pair of foes with about a couple of jumps to spare before the finish line. FEATHERED broke alertly, gained command approaching the beginning of the clubhouse turn, with CARA MARIE being wrangled back by her pilot, cut the pace from the inside, with the last-mentioned rival makng her presence felt just to the outside, continued along under the same conditions all the way to the quarter pole, got asked for run being challenged in earnest, dug in stubbornly protecting an ever-dwindling advantage, yielded to the winner but won the battle for the place. CARA MARIE raced partnered up with the runner up proceeding down the homestretch, was fighting with force on the bit conceding the front to that foe, went about more professionally thereafter attending the pace from the two path afterwards, bid strongly heading for the top of the lane, displayed gameness chiseling away at the deficit, fell short. PARTISAN POLITICS angled sharply over into the three path soon after the break, took it to the quarter pole, angled a couple of paths wider during the initial portkion of the stretch, finished well en route for the last majolr check. ALL IN FUN well rated near the inside, swung three wide after settling into the stretch, lacked the needed late response. JELLICLE BALL (IRE) cut over to the inside route, was unhurried while contiuing to take it down the backstretch, remained under a good hold by the rider idling behind rivals late on the second bend, gained a little clearance once ALL IN FUN angled out, altered course for better room with about a sixteenth to go, but achieved only fleeting success. MISSISSIPPI DELTA in the two path and between foes to the top of the lane, made no impact. ROBILLARD underwent a three wide journey, was let out as three-quarters was being completed, gave way. SIVOLIERE (IRE) stumbled badly as the field was being released from the starting gate, raced from off the inside, commenced the stretch by getting taken out to the five path, had no offering.
