Footnotes

TWISTED TOM launched itself into a prominent position with a two to three wide run on the clubhouse bend, was put to a good hold prompting the pacesetter afterwards, crept up toward the leader during the run around the second bend, spun into the lane in a near dead heat, was given his cue and forged to the front, arrived at the eighth pole with the runner up looming boldly to the outside, with a few lanes of space separating them, refused to yield during the remainder of the journey to the wire. THE CARETAKER displayed speed springing from the gate to secure the pocket, was patiently ridden keeping watch on the front runners, eased its way into path three wide from the five-sixteenths marker to the end of the second bend, got called upon, drifted out until seven wide during the ensuing furlong, reacting to a steady application of left side pressure, yet managed to close in nonetheless, shifted inward, once more from stick work, only this time from the right side, fought with vigour but was ultimately denied. DYNAMAX PRIME rode the rail during the initial stages, got roused leaving the midway point on the far turn, angled out towards the five path heading into the stretch, straightened away, came home with belated energy, appearing to be moving the best of the in-the-money finishers in the final stages. CLUTCH CARGO took up the chase from the two path, altered course over to the rail after entering the lane, put together a mild response to grab the last major slice of the pot. FLEET IRISH taken in hand shying away from an angling TWISTED TOM right after the start, was forced to steady a couple of jumps later to avoid contact with CLUTCH CARGO, tucked along the rail before arriving at the end of the homestretch, wandered out into path three racing along the backstretch, was still in it stepping onto the far turn, got fanned out to be six wide from upper to midstretch, made no impact. MOLLICA shook off being brushed from both sides in the shadow of the starting gate to take charge, cut over to the inside, got rated along setting the splits, accompanied by the winner to the outside, had that foe issue a strong challenge spinning into the lane, relinquished, stayed forwardly placed to midstretch then tired. HONORABLE JONAS brushed at the break, stayed in contention from the two path for a half before retreating.
