Footnotes

URBAN BOURBON pulled while rated along the inside in the backstretch, waited patiently in far turn, took advantage of rail opening up entering top of the lane, took over lead and kept clear under steady urging. KISMET'S HEELS was off slow at the start, continued reserved racing near the back, hustled up along outside leaving the backstretch, was carried out seven to eight wide in final turn, raced in tight between, kept on gamely and continued gaining on leader to the wire. SIR DUDLEY DIGGES vied for the lead racing and inside of MALIBU'SMOSTWANTED, took the lead and lost the top spot to eventual winner at head of the lane, never gave up, kept on gamely to hold show. GIMLET was well reserved racing in or near the back of the field, made move along outside midway in the far turn, carried out eighth to nine wide entering top of lane, quickly gained ground then evened out in late drive. WAR ORDER raced in tight between rivals while in crowded quarters running leaving the backstretch, came out five wide at head of the lane, made a move, denied access, forced to check and kept on gamely. ARCTIC JOY raced in contention along the outside in the backstretch, hustled up four to five wide in the final turn, dug in between rivals in lane then flattened out. SECOND MATE stalked early pace along the inside, raced in contention at furlong marker, dug in three wide then gaveway. MARSHALL EDDY was unhurried in early stages, made bold bid between rivals in upper stretch but failed to sustain bid and gaveway. CONQUEROR stalked early pace while saving ground along the inside, could not move forward in far turn and faded. CAST IRON raced up close along outside in the backstretch, could not keep up pace and quickly retreated. MALIBU'SMOSTWANTED dueled for lead racing along outside of SIR DUDLEY DIGGES, could not match strides after the half and gaveway. TOCORON failed to rally.
