Footnotes

NO SURRENDER was brushed at the start, shifted off the rail proceeding down the backstretch, took up the chase from the three path on the turn, closed in and spun as the widest of three front runners into the stretch, got hooked up a spirited tussle with the runner up that was to last all the way to the finish line, was carried out late by LONGFOR THE CITY but gamely got the job done. LONGFOR THE CITY drifted inward after losing its footing being released from the starting gate, made contact with the nearest foe, grabbed command and cut over to the rail, set the pace being rated along in the early going, had the winner arrive on the scene as six furlongs was being completed and got set down to a full drive in response to that opponent's impending challenge, drifted almost immediately into the two path, clung desperately to a narrow advantage after a fierce fight from upper to midstretch, began to drift out with about a sixteenth to go, was cross reined and flashed the whip from the right side to no avail, had the eventual winner shy outward as a result of this errant action, dug in with good determination but was ultimately out noddod. TOWERING MOON broke in a tangle, was three wide midpoint on the turn, was in the fifth path by the five-sixteenths pole, proved no match for the top twosome. CEE NO MORE sent over to the rail coming to the end of the backstretch, failed to menace off the subsequent ground-saving journey. FINN'S QUEST rated in the two path early prompting the pace to the quarter pole, gave way. FREDDIE G bumped hard at the start, trailed and got eased.
