Footnotes

BATTLEBACK JOHN was settled into stalking position in early stages and saved ground along inside throughout the backstretch, picked up the pace entering the far turn, dug in between at five sixteenths pole, then race on near equal terms with HARBOR KING heading into the final turn, took command when rival drifted out at head of lane and kept clear under steady urging. HARBOR KING raced four wide heading into the first turn then raced just off pacesetter and tracked rival through the backstretch, edged up and took the lead three furlongs out, continued on top under pressure leaving the far turn then drifted out wide losing position then came under strong right handed urging and moved back up for place. BIRD HUMOR stalked pace racing along the outside, came under a ride in the far turn then angled to inside at top of lane, moved back out few paths and kept along to hold show. SOUL MAN was rated back off the pace, continued settled in back although never far behind then went in pursuit in far turn, edged up four wide at the quarter pole then was carried out when HARBOR KING drifted out in the final turn, angled in some then evened out and just missed show. ZIPI ZAPE stalked pace in the backstretch, came out four to five wide and had no late interest. SUMMER MORN moved up to take early lead, continued to set the pace in the backstretch, came under pressure and lost lead three furlongs out then faded.
